The Caldecott Medal book that I chose to read for this assignment was called Working Cotton. It is about an African American family's daily work picking cotton from Working cotton is about a young girl and her sisters, Ruise, Jesmarie, and Leanne. They go out into the cotton fields to help their mother an father pick the cotton. Working Cotton by Williams, Sherley Anne and a great selection of similar Used, New and Collectible Books available now at AbeBooks.com.

This child s view of the long day s work in the cotton fields, simply expressed in a poet s resonant language, is a fresh and stirring look at migrant family life.
